

The portion of your annual premium that is attributable to coverage for acts of terrorism, as defined in the Act is $0 and does not include any charges for the portion of losses covered by the United States Government under the Act.